CITY COUNCIL ACTS TO NUMBER LOTS ON EUCLID AVE. TO 24TH ST.

HEARS OBJECTIONS TO TREES ASSIGNED TO STREETS

Council Will Act With Chamber of Commerce Planning Commission—Want City Dump Removed

At the meeting of the City Council last night Fletcher Manker, representing the chamber of commerce, asked the city to appoint members of the council to act in conjunction with the planning commission of the Chamber of Commerce. Johnson, Norton and Buffington were appointed to represent the City Council.

Fletcher Manker also asked the council to pay the $5 dues of the Upland Fire Department, which is a member of the Citrus Belt Fire Association. The amount was granted.

City Recorder Crane reported 43 traffic fines amounting to $488, and other fines amounting to $20 collected during the past month.

Objection to trees assigned to certain streets was made through petitions. The greatest objection was to the black acacia. Camphor trees were favored by residents of First and Third Avenues. No action was taken by the council as it was thought best to wait for fuller expression of the people as to their choice.

Mr. Vandenberg asked for permission to remove date palms in front of his ranch on Mountain avenue, which he wants to replace with another species. No action was taken, as the date palms were planted along a great portion of the road and it was the opinion of the council that if the change was made it would break the uniform appearance.

As more residences are being built on Euclid Avenue, residents find it necessary to have their houses numbered. Numbers are now in use as far as Thirteenth Street. The council has ordered Street Superintendent Manley to work out a system of numbering lots as far as Twenty-fourth Street. Provision will be made for one east and west street in each block.

The Standard Oil Company offered to enter into a contract to furnish the city with gasoline at a certain fixed rate, and lower the price if it goes below that figure. No action was taken.

The drainage of West Tenth Street was again under discussion. The street superintendent was ordered to fix the gutter on the north side of the road, the south side being in the Ontario city limits.

Stop signs will probably be placed at the corner of Ninth Street and Campus Avenue, as there is a heavy traffic at that corner.

At the last meeting of the council the question arose as to whether Fifth Avenue, from Ninth Street to the Pacific Electric tracks, was decided to the city. Street Superintendent Manly finds that it was decided to the city and that the company will not be assessed on that portion for the new street lights.

Street Superintendent Manly reported that the new tables for Upland Park were completed. He was ordered to have all young trees in the park staked, the stakes to be painted white. It was also suggested that a stone curb be put in along the Mountain Avenue front, and the street superintendent was ordered to get estimates on concrete and rock curbs.

City Engineer Manly reports that the water in all the city wells has been rising since the rains.

COUNTY TO ASK BIDS ON RAZING OLD BUILDINGS

Offers For Purchase of Court Street Property Also Will Be Asked For—Expect To Get Offer of $200,000

The Board of Supervisors next Monday is expected to set a date for receiving bids on the razing of the county buildings on Court Street. Three classes of bids are to be requested, it is said.

Bids on the razing of the buildings alone; bids on the purchase of the land with the buildings and bids on the purchase of the land without the buildings have been received by the board, but due to the storm conditions and the fact that the county suffered a loss of approximately $150,000, all bids were declared void.

After careful consideration of the bids offered, the board either will sell the property with the buildings or the land without the buildings after letting the contract for the razing of the county structure. Chairman C. S. Crain of the Board of Supervisors, stated that the proposition under which the county would profit most would be accepted.

It is the plan of the Supervisors to redeem a large portion of the bonds sold by them for the building of the new county courthouse on Arrowhead Avenue with the money derived from the sale of the old property.

Although no purchase price has been set on the property on Court Street, the opinion has been expressed that a bid of $200,000 would not be excessive.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION TODAY

At 1 o'clock today ninety voters had cast their ballots for or against the $119,960 school bonds which are being voted on at the Tenth Street Grammar School building.

The vote was light this forenoon, but shortly after noon voters began to arrive in twos and threes, and a heavy vote is expected this afternoon and evening. The polls will be open until 8 o'clock P. M.

About seventy-five seventh and eighth grade pupils from the Tenth Street Grammar school, chaperoned by their teachers, paraded through the business section this forenoon. The object of the parade was to arouse interest and boost for the school bonds for which the election is being held today.

Two drummers led the parade. The girls were dressed in white sailor blouses and blue skirts. At Second avenue and Ninth street the parade stopped and the pupils saluted the flag.

Traffic Officer Louis Kronmeyer was on hand to see that the children were protected from traffic accidents.

Rice paper is made not from rice but from the membranes of breadfruit trees.

E. Perdew in regard to the lease of the Municipal Camp Ground. J. K. Brown has been leasing the ground from the city, but has sold his interests in the camp to Perdew, who wants the lease transferred. The transfer was approved by the council.

Owners of the land adjoining the city dump grounds on Cucamonga Avenue, south of the Santa Fe right-of-way, are planning to subdivide their land. B. W. Spencer of the Ontario Chamber of Commerce suggested that the city use some wash land owned by J. S. Armstrong farther south as a dumping ground. The city owns about three acres which is used as a city dump, and the owners of the adjoining land would like to have it removed to some other location.

LION CLUB HOST THURSDAY NOON

Rotary Club and Young Men's Service Club Enjoy Noon Luncheon At Sycamores—Dr. Stauffacher Speaker

With the Upland Rotary Club and the Young Men's Service Club as guests of the day, the Upland Lions Club was host yesterday at noon when Dr. Stauffacher, pastor of the Congregational Church of the college city, was the speaker of the day.

Dr. Stauffacher, who has been making an exhaustive study of conditions throughout Mexico, spoke on the subject "Reconstruction in Mexico."

"When you speak of reconstruction in Mexico," said Dr. Stauffacher, "you can apply the same term to China and Africa, for the leaders of all three countries are laboring to improve conditions throughout their respective countries."

"Mexico passed through a hundred years of war and then operated on the unusual regime of Diaz. Following the war troubles were heaped upon Mexico through internal strife with the result that today reconstruction is under way in a most constructive manner."

"Government agents have been sent to many countries to study industrial, social and banking regulations. Laws of no particular country have been adopted in Mexico, but the laws of other countries have been rebuilt to fit into Mexican life."

"Mexico's population is today 63 per cent illiterate and 88 per cent propertyless, less all of which adds to the problems of the government."

"Mexico at the present time is devoting its energies to education and to co-operative farming in the hope that when these two problems have been worked out the percentage of those owning will greatly increase and thus make Mexico a far better country in which to live."

Quartet Sings
Special vocal numbers were given by members of the Lions Club, Rotary Club and Young Men's Service Club, but the main feature of the musical program was the Armstrong Male quartet.

DOCTORS PLAN NEW BUILDING

Plans Being Drawn For 18-Room Concrete Block

When the new office building to be erected on the northeast corner of Second avenue and D street is completed, the four doctors who are interested in the project will have one of the most modern office buildings in Southern California.

The plans now being drawn by the architect call for an eighteen room building, having a frontage of 50 feet on Second avenue and 80 feet on D street. It will be L-shaped to insure a maximum of light and air. No detail has been overlooked to make it an up-to-date office building for physicians. The building as now planned will be constructed of reinforced concrete.

Dr. John B. Craig, Dr. Mary Craig Williamson, Dr. A. L. Webster and Dr. Wm. H. Craig, Jr., dentist, who will erect the building bought the lot several weeks ago from Dr. Wm. H. Craig, Sr. Dr. Craig, Sr., will also occupy offices in the building.

LINEMAN HURT IN 20-FOOT FALL

At Cucamonga Wednesday, James Squires, a lineman for the Ontario-Upland Telephone Company, was injured when he fell about 20 feet from a telephone pole. He suffered a broken collar bone, a sprained ankle and a wrenched back.

After being treated by a physician he was removed to his home where he is said to be improving, but will probably be confined to his home for some time.

The accident occurred when he was removing a crossarm and the safety belt around his waist broke.

MAY FILE BRIEFS IN RATE HEARING

Telephone Toll Rate Hearing Before State Railroad Commission At Pomona Closed—Additional Time Granted

After continuing for over two full days the telephone toll rate hearings before the State Railroad Commission at Pomona were closed yesterday afternoon without Ontario having been given an opportunity to present its case against the discontinuance of unlimited telephone service between Ontario and China and the substitution of a toll service.

In view of this, City Attorney E. H. Joliffe of Ontario asked that Ontario and China should be accorded the privilege of filing a brief. The Railroad Commission's engineers and the Ontario and Upland Telephone Company requested similar rights and Commissioner L. O. Whitsell, before whom the case was heard, granted the requests.

As the matter now stands, the engineers will be allowed two weeks in which to make a local survey, then the city, chamber of commerce and interested citizens will be given ten days in which to file briefs and, finally, the local telephone company will be given a like privilege.

Although the commission's engineering staff announced at the opening of the hearing on Tuesday that it would not recommend a change from unlimited toll service in the Pomona and Claremont-La Verne-Chino district and the delegation at the hearing from the Ontario-Upland-Chino district felt that the engineers would be similarly inclined in their case, representatives of this section were disagreeably surprised when it became apparent that the commission's engineering staff were not disposed to consider it as a parallel case.

When this became evident, City Attorney Joliffe and City Service Manager Otto S. Roen of Ontario, who represented the West End at the hearing, decided that it would be best to present all the testimony of previous hearings rather than call witnesses, inasmuch as the showing at the last hearing on the case before the commission was so strong that the decision at that time was made against tolls.

Prominent business men of Upland, Ontario and China are almost solidly against the imposition of tolls, but do not object to a reasonable raise in flat rates for telephone service.

OLD SUPPLY MINE IN DALE DISTRICT TO BE DEVELOPED

Operations in the Supply Gold mine of the Dale mining district, 35 miles south of Amboy in San Bernardino county, will be begun as soon as preparations can be completed by the new owners of the property, the Arrowhead Development Co. of Tonopah, Nev., according to announcement in Los Angeles yesterday.

The Arrowhead concern purchased the mine from Philip Wiseman and heirs of the Seeley W. Mudd estate last week, who will receive a royalty on production in addition to a large cash payment on the purchase. The Supply mine property consists of seven patented claims, a 600-ton stamp mill, a cyanide plant, hoist and compressor, and pumping and electrical equipment.

Jack Allman and William S. Campbell, who recently acquired the Ivanhoe group of mines in the Dale district, will join with the Arrowhead company in pumping water three miles from Bush lake to the properties, to be used in the new operations it was announced.

The Arrowhead Development Co. operates the United Eastern mine in Oatman, Ariz. Brainerd B. Smith and J. A. McDonald are the consulting engineers.

ONTARIO HOTEL STAGES OPENING

Although the new Hotel Ontario was informally opened to the public on January 17, when the Ontario Realty Board held their annual banquet there, the hotel management announces an elaborate three-day formal opening, which began last night and will continue tonight and Saturday.

Last evening Evan Jones, architect for the beautiful hotel, entertained contractors and supply firm representatives who provided materials for the construction of the building. Tonight the Ontario Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a banquet for the leading citizens of the community at which public officials will be guests of honor. Tomorrow night the public in general will have an opportunity to share in the formal opening celebration.

The official opening for Saturday will be between the hours of 2 to 5 in the afternoon and from 8 to 11 in the evening.

A special dinner will be served at six o'clock, and the whole tenure of the affair promises to be of a gala nature. Another delightful feature of Saturday's program will be a visit through the hotel, which will include inspection of the well-equipped kitchen, dining rooms as well as the beautifully furnished bedrooms.

During the dinner hour Miss Isabel Mathews, well-known harpist, will be heard in a program of charming selections, and Miss Marjorie Smith will render a group of vocal solos. Dancing will be enjoyed from 9 to 12 and an invitation is extended to all residents of Western San Bernardino County to attend this opening.

Speiser to Serve 30-Day Sentence for Assault

Otto Speiser of East Eleventh street, Upland, was given a 30 day sentence by Judge Holbrook for having beaten Clem Bare, a crippled youth of Upland. Speiser was arrested in Depot street where Bare charges Speiser waylaid him. Both young men were on their way to a dance at Chino.

Had No Warning On Rear of Truck

Fred Mitchell of Alta Loma, was assessed a $5 fine in Pomona last Tuesday when he failed to display a warning sign on the heavily laden truck which he was driving through the city. An officer spied the big load, which overhung the road and cited him to appear in court.

ONTARIO AUTHOR TALKS FOR $10

J. A. Hamilton, Ontario Wood Dealer and Self-styled Author, Uses Unbecoming Language in Tree Argument

J. A. Hamilton of 213 East F street, wood dealer and self-styled author, has had a top price set upon the values of his words which, according to Mrs. Florence M. Ogan, a neighbor, were not in keeping with the dictation employed by popular present day writers.

The words were used by Hamilton in closing an argument with Mrs. Ogan over the trimming of a tree that is said to stand near the dividing line of their respective properties and, according to the latter were most ungentlemanly.

In consequence, Mrs. Ogan had Hamilton arrested on a peace disturbance charge and when the wood merchant appeared before Judge George R. Holbrook, he asked for time to consult with his attorney, which was granted by the court. When he returned later in the day he stated that his attorney was out of town and that his wife had advised him to plead guilty, which he did. The court said.

STATE SCHOOL OFFICERS OPPOSE PUBLIC NOTICE

If the tax payers of a school district seek to learn anything about the expenditure of their money, they have the privilege of obtaining that information from the office of the county superintendent of schools. That half a day's time may be necessary to secure that data is immaterial. This was the statement of Sam Coen, deputy superintendent of public instruction, before the Assembly Educational Committee last Friday afternoon at Sacramento. Assembly bill No. 151, introduced by Witter, was up for hearing. The bill provided that boards of school trustees be required to publish an annual statement of their financial affairs.

Witter's bill was called up by Chairman William Byrne of Los Angeles at an hour's notice. This was at the request of a body of paid educators from all parts of the state. This aggregation, according to Coen's statement to the committee, at a meeting held in Sacramento to decide the fate of all bills pertaining to schools, had determined that the bill which would give publicity to their affairs "should be killed."

To substantiate Coen's assertion, nearly a dozen teachers, principals, school superintendents and other paid employees of the school district from widely separated localities, unanimously insisted upon their unalterable opposition to any measure of the character proposed.

"If the report is short, it will be useless. If long enough to cover all the ground it will be unnecessarily expensive," was Coen's answer to Witter's query why school districts should not be subject to the same public scrutiny of their financial affairs required of cities, counties and other municipal corporations.

As a quorum was present, the committee deferred final action but the fate of the bill is certain. Proponents of the measure to give publicity to school expenditures had left for San Francisco shortly after noon, unsuspecting that the measure would be called up in their absence at the request of the employees of the school districts.

Opposition to the measure came chiefly from the larger cities.

Barbers to Be Licensed

Upland barbers are watching with particular interest the fate of a bill introduced in the State Legislature which will require all barbers hereafter to pass a rigid examination and take out a State license.

Under the bill a board of three would be appointed by Governor Young to grant licenses, inspect shops and schools, and establish educational requirements for apprentices.

MINE ACTIVITY IS RENEWED IN DESERT HOLES

All Sections of County Being Worked Over In Recent Months—Much Interest Over Kramer Hills Deal

San Bernardino County is becoming the biggest mining district in California, according to the number of location notices and mining claims filed in the office of County Recorder Fulton G. Ferand. Every part of the county is affected in the sudden increase in the filing claims and locations, it is shown on the records of the county office.

During the past month hundreds of claims have been filed on prospective gold mines in the Mojave Desert, state patents have been taken out on state school land in the desert and location notices have been filed on land that is expected to yield iron ore in the Yucupia district. Renewed activity is seen in districts that have been abandoned.

Expect County To Lead

Prospectors say that within the next six months or a year San Bernardino County will lead all other counties in the state and on the Pacific Coast in the quantity of gold and iron ore produced, if the statements of mining men are found to be true. The iron district in Yucupia is a virgin field and it is said that there are strong indications of a large bed of the ore underneath the surface. Five location notices already have been filed in the district, with others expected daily.

In the Mojave Desert, gold claims and state patents have been filed on scores of sections. Although little gold has been taken from the sand dunes, indications are strong and mining men have expressed the opinion that the wealth of the desert will this time be produced.

Renewed Activity Here

Grim visaged prospectors of the desert are more optimistic over present conditions than they have been over any "strike" in recent years. Many of them are employed by large corporations, while others still are panning alone and hope that their luck will be better than that of the prospector who died with his hands clutching a large chunk of "fool's gold." The prospector died after penning a note that he had "died rich, by Gad."

Renewed activity in the Kramer Hills district also has brought hundreds of the prospectors from other sections of the Mojave. Reported sale of the option on the Herkelrath mines to a group of nationally known financiers, who will spend millions in developing the "holes," has turned the spotlight of mining activity on San Bernardino County.

"Open House" At Upland Stores

Members of the Merchants' Association are extending an invitation to the public to be their guests at their stores on Thursday, March 24th. That day was selected by the Upland Business Men's Association for the Annual Spring Opening and "Open House."

Many special features are being planned for the occasion in the way of decorations, etc. Last year the opening proved so successful that they have decided to repeat it this Spring.

You will not be asked to buy, but to just look over the display of goods. Many will be surprised at the up-to-date stock carried by our merchants some of our stores comparing favorably with city stores and also prices.

"SCOTCH" COUPE OWNER WILL BE TRIED MARCH 29

OWNER CLAIMS MACHINE WAS STOLEN IN HOLLYWOOD

Alta Loma Assault Case To Be Heard On Same Day—Boy Says He Was Threatened With Knife

According to word received by Judge Crane from the District Attorney's office the hearing of G. C. Champ, 118 New Hampshire Street, Los Angeles, was set for Tuesday, March 29. Champ is said to be the owner of the coupe in which several cases of "Scotch" whiskey were found last month.

The coupe was found stranded on Nineteenth Street after the storm of last month. He will be tried on the charge of having intoxicating liquor in his possession. In the meantime he is out under $300 bail. Champ, who is a druggist, claims the machine was stolen in Hollywood.

Alta Loma Assault Case

On the same day D. A. Beck of Alta Loma will appear in court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. The charge was brought by his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ethel M. Beck of Alta Loma. Beck is now at liberty under $500 bail.

In her complaint the daughter-in-law charges that when she and her 18-year-old son went to Beck's home to use the telephone he refused to let them enter, and when her son tried to force his way in he was threatened with a knife in the hands of his grandfather.

Hunt Ontario Car Here

Upland police were yesterday notified by Ontario officials to be on the lookout for a Ford roadster belonging to Leslie Cooper of 233 Miramonte St., Ontario. The car was stolen on Wednesday night while parked on East B Street, near the California theatre.

WOMAN TRIES NEW GAME HERE

A woman, who claims to be a recent arrival from Oklahoma, was yesterday taken into custody by Officer Jedd Sawyer, after she was accused by storekeepers for having obtained goods under false pretenses.

Claiming at the stores that her daughter had bought goods there the evening before, but had left them on the counter, she had come to get them. At two of the stores the scheme did not work, but at the third where she claimed her daughter had bought some cookies and left them, the storekeeper gave her the goods which she claimed were left by her daughter.

When asked by the officers what price her daughter paid for the goods she named a sum that was far from the real value. She was released with a warning not to try that scheme again.

Alta Loma Grove Sold To Los Angeles Party

Fred Rhem this week sold his 5-acre lemon and orange grove on Highland avenue, between Lemon and Ramona avenues, Alta Loma, to Barbara O'Connor of Los Angeles. The property was formerly owned by Maude Campbell. The deal was made through the agency of the Upland Realty and Insurance Company.

Flores Says "Not Guilty" To Charges of Theft

Ignacio Flores, who was accused of stealing a tire from a car belonging to L. M. Bybee of Ontario, had his hearing postponed Wednesday in order to allow him time for securing witnesses.

When brought before Judge Crane he said he was not guilty of stealing the tire, and will have three other Mexicans to testify for him to that effect.

Now Everybody Happy Over California Storm

The February rains in California are still a topic of conversation in eastern newspapers, but it has turned into a lighter vein. We read in the Buffalo Evening News:

Californians are surprised to learn that the storm which recently swept in on them from the Pacific has been taken seriously by the middle and the eastern sections of the country. They are disconcerted to discover that the people of Florida think the storm was comparable to the hurricane of last year that struck with such terrific force at Miami and other points on the southeastern peninsula. They are fussed by this telegram which came to them from Florida:

"Sympathies of Jacksonville Real Estate Board go out to realtors and people of California in their loss through storm and flood. Please advise if we can be of any help."

"California is still here," the San Francisco Chronicle replied. "The wet cellars in Los Angeles will dry out. And the people down there can put away their rowboats because even if a few of their lots are submerged it is only a temporary condition and not the usual thing."

It will be noted that San Francisco clearly designated the section that bore the brunt of the Pacific storm—Los Angeles. This particularity may be explained by the recent agitation in that quarter for a division of the state, with the idea of creating a north and a south commonwealth. But that is California's own affair. So far that matter is the storm. California wants no messages of sympathy from Florida, because of the subtle implications that attach to them.

What of Mother's Knee?

(Eva B. Hansl in Harper's Magazine)

College presidents and school principals are so frequently being quoted as to seem almost unanimous in declaring that the standards maintained in their institutions of learning can be no higher than those of the homes and the communities from which the students come.

Water cannot rise above its source. And yet, how many countless homes there are that dump their children on the schools, expecting them to teach and train their offspring in everything from manual work to manners. Is anything still being taught at mother's knee? (The evolution of woman's knee is a subject for sociological study in itself.)

What is a home for in the life of a modern adolescent who goes from boarding school to camp and back again? A stopping-off place for repairs; a rest cure, an outfitting establishment where they sew the name tape in your clothes free of charge. "Hello! Goodbye!" Does anybody profess to know that child? He is one of several hundred in school and camp—is he more than a name in the books at home?

I have just been reading an article by one of the foremost psychiatrists in the country on the needs of the growing boy and girl, in which he stresses the fact that each child must be studied and handled as an individual—that where one may need social opportunities, the other requires enforced rest; where one is over-studious and must be diverted from books, the other requires tactful prodding and persistent holding to the task to develop steadfastness of character.

Is it within the range of many schoolmasters to give this individual attention, to show the patience and endurance which is necessary to see young persons through their "difficulties?" Has any mother the right to ask others to do this for her? To me it seems an outrageous imposition. It is part and parcel of the great modern game of "passing the buck."

Harvard cutups came off second best in a brush with Boston police. They ought to sever relations with the bluecoats, too.—The Flint Daily Journal.

Don't You Care!

Somebody always may excel you,
But don't you care!
Others outplay you or outspell you,
But don't you care!
Prizes may not fall to you,
But in everything you do
You can have a purpose true,
So don't you care!

Somebody else may have more money,
But don't you care!
Somebody may be shrewder, Sonny,
But don't you care!
Others may wear finer things—
Silks and furs and diamond rings,
But you can have the joys love brings,
So don't you care!

Somebody may get more attention,
But don't you care!
Or win the "honorable mention",
But don't you care!
If your work is nobly done,
Surely you can have the fun
Honest worth has always won,
So don't you care!

Teach Grammar (Riverside Enterprise)

Riverside County school teachers are trying to discover a method of inducing their pupils to use correct English on the street and in their homes. The inference is that in the school rooms the rules of grammar are complied with, but that when the youngsters are freed from the guiding influence of the pedagogues they slip back into a less formal mode of conversation.

Although the teachers have expressed concern at the ruthless liberties taken with the English language by the younger generation, The Enterprise is of the opinion that as a whole boys and girls of today use English of a higher type than their predecessors of twenty years ago. Not so long ago the conversation of a large part of the population would have thrown a grammarian into hysterics. Nowadays a man or woman—or a child—who does not use fairly correct English finds himself in an embarrassing situation. His deficiency is painfully evident, for most persons are aware of his shortcomings.

It is an almost impossible task to teach a child to speak correctly when his parents in the family circle violate all the rules of syntax. But a great step toward correct English will have been taken when school children are taught grammar so that they really know what it means. The writer frequently comes in contact with young people who have a desire to write. Most of them, he discovers, have only the vaguest ideas of grammar. Ask them to analyze the structure of a sentence and they gaze at you in amazement. When boys and girls understand English grammar, and know when they are violating accepted rules, their language will automatically adjust itself to the dictums of good usage.

The "Perfect Lady" Obsolete

(Corra Harris in the Saturday Evening Post)

I missed so many of the types of men and women I used to know in this flashing, competent new world. I met some able churchwomen, some important women in the political world, but not one who felt like a perfect lady. I was never able to make that grade myself, but I have always entertained a respectful admiration for her.

There was another at whom I used to grin secretly, but now I could fall upon her bosom if I could find one. She had a sterilized mind. She would use only the weakest, most innocent words. If she said a person was naughty, she meant that he was a liar and a thief.

This was her way of avoiding the word spatter of evil wisdom, but as I look back now, it seems to me that they were all married—happily married at that.

I never heard of one whose husband treated her unkindly. No matter what sort of man he was, she managed to keep her frail fingers on the scruff of his neck. She is obsolete now. The noblest Roman of them all cannot do that to a modern husband.

A Safety Zone (San Diego Sun)

If you want real protection, move to Nicaragua!

There are 2300 American marines in that little republic.

The marines are there, according to the state department, to protect American lives and property.

And how many Americans reside in Nicaragua? Exactly 571, according to the official 1920 census.

On that basis each American down there can have four stalwart sea-going soldiers as personal body guards. And according to Nicaraguan Liberals, it will be even better than that. The Liberals claim that the 571 Americans counted in 1920 included about 150 American marines.

And property? Robert W. Dunn in his book "American Foreign Investments," lists the United Fruit Company as the principal American property owner in Nicaragua. He estimates this company's property there at $170,000, about the value of a block of parked automobiles. It is apparent, therefore, that property also will have rather excellent protection.

All in all, considering crime conditions in our own country, you could move to no place safer than Nicaragua.

Good News Will Sell Newspapers, Says Editor Who Has Proved It

(The Christian Science Monitor)

Good news will sell papers, says Charles B. Welch, editor of the Tacoma News Tribune, after a week's experiment, when he instructed his staff to report fully addresses of a religious nature and give them space according to news value.

Several nonsectarian meetings were sponsored by the Christian Business Men's Club, and the best reporters were assigned to attend them. During the week sixteen signed interviews and stories appeared, with eight photographs of speakers. A dignified cartoon and an editorial opened the week, and a daily program of meetings appeared on the first page.

A total of 675 column inches of matter (more than 32 columns) regarding these meetings was printed by the News Tribune. Of this, 258 inches appeared prominently displayed on the front page in a week when accident, scandal, and crime news was plentiful.

Officers of 64 organizations, representing 3000 citizens, wrote the editor, commending his attitude. So successful, financially as well as morally, has been this new policy that Mr. Welch has made it a permanent one, believing that good news is read with eagerness and builds up permanent circulation. Religious news has since appeared on the first page that formerly would have been minimized or ignored.

Tested Recipes

English Muffins

1 quart flour, ½ teaspoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 large teaspoons baking powder, 1½ pints milk. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and powder; add milk, and mix into smooth batter trifle stiffer than for griddle cakes. Have griddle heated regularly all over, grease it, and lay on muffin rings; half fill them, and when risen well up to top of rings, turn over gently with cake-turner. They should not be too brown—just a buff color. When all cooked, pull each open in half, toast delicately, butter well, serve on folded napkin, piled high and very hot.

Mountain Muffins

Pour 1½ cups scalding milk on 1 cup white Indian corn meal; cover; let stand 10 minutes; add 1 cup cold boiled rice; mix; add 1 cup flour mixed with 3 teaspoons baking powder, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 well-beaten eggs, 2 tablespoons melted butter. Beat hard; bake in greased muffin-pans in hot oven.

Egg Muffins

1 quart flour, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 large tablespoon butter, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 3 eggs, 1½ pints milk. Sift together flour, sugar, salt and powder; rub in the butter; add the beaten eggs and milk; mix quickly into a smooth batter, a little firmer than for griddle cakes; ¾ fill cold, carefully greased muffin-pans; bake in hot oven 15 minutes.

Graham Muffins

1 quart Graham flour, 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 egg, 1 pint milk. Sift together Graham flour, sugar, salt and powder; add beaten egg and milk; mix into batter like pound cake; muffin-pans well greased, ¾ full; bake in hot oven 15 minutes.

Oatmeal Muffins

1 cup oatmeal, 1½ pints flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 tablespoon lard, 2 eggs, 1 pint milk. Sift together oatmeal, flour, salt, and powder; rub in lard cold, add beaten eggs and milk; mix smoothly into batter rather thinner than cup cake; fill muffin-pans ¾ full; bake in good hot oven 15 minutes.

Potato Muffins

Boil and mash 3 potatoes; add 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter; beat well. Add 2 beaten eggs, ½ cup milk, flour to make a drop batter, and 1 teaspoon baking powder. Bake on hot greased griddle in greased rings.

Sweet Muffins

1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1 pint sweet milk, 3 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt. Mix and sift dry ingredients; add milk and beaten egg and butter. Beat hard, bake in greased muffin-pans.

Rice Crumpets

3 eggs, 1½ cups milk, 1 cup cold boiled rice, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1 cup Indian corn meal, ½ cup flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt. Mix in order named, and bake in crumpet-rings on hot greased griddle.

Gems

1 pint flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 3 teaspoons melted butter, 1 cup milk, 3 eggs, whites and yolks beaten separately. Mix as for muffins, adding beaten whites last; bake in hot, well-greased iron gem-pans.

Graham Gems

1½ pints Graham flour, ½ pint Indian corn meal, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1½ pints milk. Sift together Graham flour, corn meal, salt and powder. Add the milk, and mix into a moderately stiff batter. ½ fill cold gem-pans well greased. Bake in a hot oven 10 to 12 minutes.

Rice Gems

1 egg, 1 cup milk, 1 cup cold boiled rice, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon melted butter. Mix as for plain gems and bake in hot oven in gem-pans.

Apple Gems

Chop fine 4 sour apples, add 1 beaten egg, 2 tablespoons molasses 1½ cups Indian corn meal, 1½ cups flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons baking powder. Add sufficient milk to make thick drop batter, and bake in hot greased gem-pans.

Hot Cross Buns

Sift together 1 quart flour, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup sugar, 3 scant teaspoons baking powder. Rub in ½ cup butter, then add ½ pound cleaned currants, ½ teaspoon nutmeg, ¼ pound cut citron, ¼ pound seeded raisins, ½ teaspoon allspice. Beat 2 eggs, add ½ cup milk and stir into the dry mixture, adding enough more milk to mix to a firm dough. Mold into round buns, lay 2 inches apart on greased pans, brush with milk. Cut cross on each, sprinkle cut with granulated sugar, bake in hot oven.

HALF OF ORANGE CROP SHIPPED

About 50 per cent of the orange crop has been shipped from this district. It is expected that hereafter a better grade of fruit will go forward, as most of the fruit weakened by the storm has already been shipped, and the sunny days will have a tendency to harden the fruit remaining on the trees. In general the navel in this district unaffected by decay spots are as sound as in the average year at this time.

The two days rain of the past week had a beneficial influence on the rate of shipments. This past week has seen the heaviest arrivals in the eastern markets of decay-affected cars from shipments immediately following the long protracted rainy spell in February.

Shipments under ice seem to arrive in fairly sound condition, whereas cars under ventilation showed a rather uniform tendency toward decay. Virtually all the fruit is now iced and from now on arrivals should show little trouble in this regard. Fruit showing some decay has been bought at fairly satisfactory prices, whereas in former years it has been difficult to place such fruit at any price.

Due to the rains Valencias have increased in size and will bring sufficient increase in value to offset the losses from decay. Orange County packers expect to start moving fruit around April 1. The fruit has matured two or three weeks earlier than usual.

MISHAPS FATAL TO EIGHT IN COUNTY DURING PAST MTH.

Two Suicides Recorded In 28-
Day Period—Six Die In Auto
Crashes, Reports Coroner J.
B. Hanna

Accidents claimed eight San Bernardino County lives during the month of February, according to a report compiled in the office of Coroner J. B. Hanna. Of this number six were attributed to automobiles, it is shown in the record.

Two suicides occurred in the county during the 28-day period, it is also revealed in the coroner's report. One of the suicides attracted attention throughout Southern California.

Banker Is Suicide
Andrew Smith, Ontario banker, committed suicide in the west-end city after he had dispatched notes to his son in San Bernardino informing him of his intention to take his life, unless he could obtain money in Los Angeles. Police and deputy sheriffs throughout Southern California searched for the missing man for several days. One evening two Ontario patrolmen noticed a sedan parked at the curbing in the residential district of the west-end city.

Investigating, the officers found a man slumped in the rear seat of the machine. He was aroused and told the officers that he was all right and that he intended to go home. Not knowing it was Smith, the two patrolmen turned away. When within a short distance of the sedan, the banker placed a revolver to his head and sent a bullet through his brain. He died instantly.

The "Happy Suicide" Case
Jacques Cartier, known as "the happy suicide," was another suicide in San Bernardino County during the past month. His body was found hanging from the limb of a tree near the Burger Service station near Barstow. Several notes left tacked on nearby trees informed the public who he was and what disposition to make of his body.

In other notes Cartier joked about committing suicide.

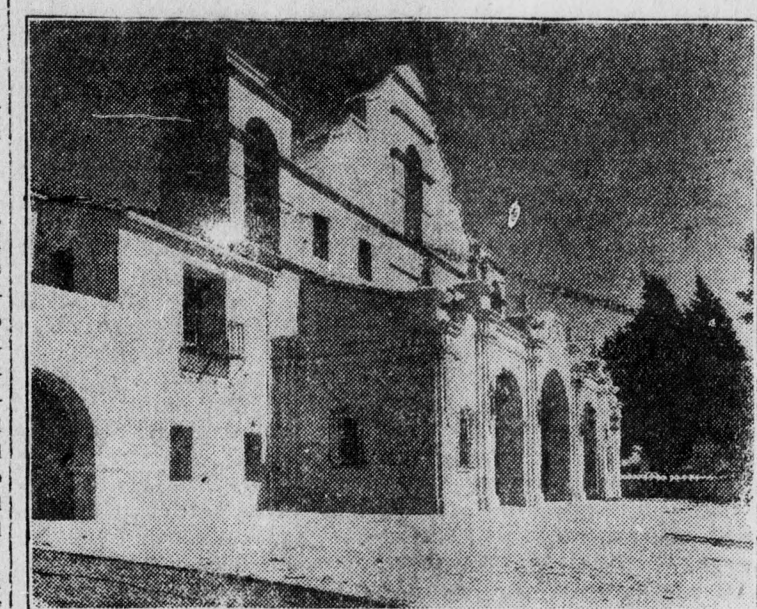

Five deaths in the county were investigated by the coroner's office, while death certificates on the remaining five were signed without inquests.

Dedicatory Performance of New Mission Play House Gala Affair

On Saturday night, March 5th, in the little town of San Gabriel, a dream house which has at last become a reality, opened its doors for the premiere performance of John Steven McGroarty's drama of the olden days of California.

The new Playhouse, designed after the San Antonio de Padua Mission at Monterey, is a fitting home for this picturesque, historic drama of how California began. The lovely lines of the building, the cloistered promenades and the foyer, as well as the color harmonies of the auditorium, all lend an atmosphere that takes one away from the jazz of modern life and carries one back to the days when the self-sacrificing padres gave their lives and strength to the teaching of Christianity to the Indians of California.

While Roberts Golden State Band was playing its inspiring music in front of the playhouse, the guests of the officers and directors, guests who had so gladly donated $100 or more to the furnishing fund of this beautiful edifice, began to arrive. The gay Spanish shawls worn by so many of the ladies, the formal evening dress of the men, did much to add to the festiveness of the affair. After the audience was seated these shawls, draped over the boxes, enhanced the already beautiful auditorium.

The lovely simplicity of the curtain, the wrought iron lanterns shedding their subdued light, the style and arrangement of the other lighting fixtures, the ornamental ceiling, elaborate without being too ornate, are all evidences of the carefully thought out plan of an artistic mind.

John Steven McGroarty, author and producer of the Mission Play, in the annals of theatrical history.

Mr. Sprowl also states that the advance sale of seats for future performances is most gratifying, several parties already having arranged to attend.

To see the Mission Play is in itself satisfying but to witness it in its beautiful new home is a treat never to be forgotten.

NEW MEASURE TO REGULATE EARLY FRUIT

HORTICULTURAL COMMISSIONERS TO DISCUSS
QUARANTINE LAW

Acceleration of the Color of Oranges To Be Forbidden
Unless Fruit Passes Test of Eight To One

A new measure before the legislature is an amendment for the standardization of citrus fruits. The feature of this section as rewritten is a clause forbidding the acceleration of color of oranges unless the fruit first passes the test of eight to one and continues a ratio of eight parts of soluble solids to one part of acid.

Previously fruit was held suitable for shipping either when it was 70 per cent colored or sufficiently matured to pass the eight to one test. It will probably be possible to hold 70 per cent colored fruit and suitable for shipping regardless of the soluble solids test, but unless this test is passed the fruit cannot be sweated.

In effect the new provision will check the shipment of green fruit without working any visible hardship on the shipper of early fruit.

New Quarantine Law

For the protection of the citrus industry County Commissioners have been called to Sacramento this week to discuss the plant quarantine law. Nurserymen of the state have never approved of the law, as it has checked shipments of nursery stock from one part of the state to another, so some of them have determined to do away with it.

It is proposed to leave it entirely to the judgment of the inspectors and only on actual findings of the pest should shipments be barred. Many of the pests in the earlier stages are of microscopic size and would be hard to detect.

Some workable agreement may be worked out which will permit the continuance of the reasonable presumption clause which is now in effect, to determine admission or rejection of nursery stock, even though the law may be modified to some degree.

Citrus Fly

In the northern part of the state the eradication of the citrus fly is under way. Between 35 and 40 blocks are being sprayed weekly. The kill is reported to be 99 to 100 per cent. Forty thousand dollars have been appropriated for this purpose by the state. In addition to spraying of the flora in the infested area, all citrus trees and plants found to be infested are taken out and burned.

How the white fly found its way into California from the Southern States is not definitely determined.

MISS MARIAN STURDIVENT ENTERTAINS GIRL SCOUTS—
Members of Girl Scout troop No. XX were guests last Wednesday at the home of Miss Marian Sturdivent, 561 Eighth avenue.

The business meeting was called to order by the president at five o'clock and a busy session followed. This is "health week" at Chaffey High School and the young girls planned a "hike" lunch that conformed with all the requirements of health rules, as laid down by dieticians and those in charge of the Girl's work. The girls also discussed ways and means to earn money with which to purchase miniature furniture for the model home they are making in their home maker's class. The girls' cabin in Barrett canyon is a very popular place at present and to date the cabin is all dated up until the first of May.

Last week-end seven girl scouts from Etiwanda and their captain, Mrs. Walter Glines and the field captain, Miss Louise Harris, spent the week-end at the cabin and every minute of the delightful outing was enjoyed to the limit.

This week-end girl scouts from Ontario are planning to enjoy a real night in the mountains and those who are going are looking forward with much anticipation to the event.

MRS. DAVENPORT HOSTESS AT RED HILL—

Campbell, Mrs. H. A. Spies, Mrs. S. H. Gardner, Mrs. W. E. Morse, Mrs. Chas. B. Motesinger, Mrs. Frank Allen, Mrs. Harry I. de Berard, Mrs. Peter Thatcher, Jr., Mrs. Arthur de Berard, Mrs. George Byron Ford, Mrs. Earl Williams, Mrs. A. J. Hall, Mrs. George H. Crill, Mrs. Arthur Pehl and Miss Mabel Gray.

SOCIETY and CLUB

YOUNG WOMEN'S CLASS MAKES MERRY—

Irish songs and Irish "tales" were much in evidence last evening, when members of the Young Women's class of the Methodist church enjoyed a real old fashioned St. Patrick party.

The delightful affair was held in Crowell hall that had been transformed into a "bit of Ireland" for the occasion. Shamrocks and ferns formed the attractive background of the decorative note and each guest wore a festive little green cap. Games and music were enjoyed during the evening and at a late hour a dainty spread was served at a long table whose clever centerpiece was the "Lake of Killarney." Tiny dolls attired in fluffy green skirts, indicated each guest's place and the St. Patrick motif was repeated in the menu. Thirty members were present and much of the success of the delightful affair is due to Mrs. Ralph Marr and Mrs. Arthur Betz who planned and executed all the details.

GIRLS COUNCIL GUESTS OF MISS HENDERSON—

Miss Marian Henderson was dinner hostess to members of the Chaffey Girls' Council on Tuesday evening, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, 756 Euclid avenue.

A charming color note of green and gold, predominated in the decorations, daffodils and ferns, forming the attractive centerpiece on the dining table, while tall golden tapers added a further touch to the picture. Tiny peanut favors in the shape of ostriches, each be decked with a real feather tail, indicated covers for the guests. Following dinner, the young women discussed plans for the Camp Conifer Rally, which will be held in April and the meeting closed with the Council ceremonial.

Those present and the group they represented were Miss Carol

Dart, Miss Pauline Tilden and Miss Louise Henry from the Girl Reserves; Miss Maris Matling, from Miss Lillian Graves scout troop; Miss Harriett Shattuck from Mrs. Leigh Thompson's scout troop; Miss Elizabeth Bond, from Miss Louise Harris' troop; Miss Edna Mae Dacus, from the Otakoya campfire girls; Miss Marian Huntzinger from the Nakomis campfire girls; Miss Marian Henderson from the Tatapochin Campfire girls; Miss Dorothy Durfee from the Wah Wah Tayse, campfire girls and Miss Lillian Lind, secretary of the Girl's work in the Chaffey district.

BANNING BUSINESS WOMEN HOLD MEETING—

The Business Woman's Club at Banning, which is among the youngest in the state federation, held an interesting dinner meeting last Wednesday evening, when they had as their honor guest Mrs. George L. Winter, president of the Southern district. Mrs. Winter took as her subject "The History of the organization of the Business and Professional Women's Clubs" reviewing especially the progress of the Business Women's Organizations throughout the Southern district. The Banning Club, which was only organized a few months ago has a membership of thirty-five and Miss Elizabeth Weinland, who is connected with the Banning city schools is president. At the meeting on Wednesday evening, a delightful musical program was featured and community singing was also in order.

Among those from Upland who attended the meeting were, Mrs. Winter and Miss Grace Adst. The following groups will take part and they have arranged a Grand Council Fire and an interesting program to follow: Tatapochan, guardian Mrs. Bess R. Jones, assistant, Mrs. Peter A. Guthrie; Nakomis, guardian, Miss Geraldine Norton, assistant Mrs. Robert Henderson; and Opyokwa, guardian, Mrs. Ernest Cheel.

CLUB HOUSE SETTING FOR SMART PARTY—

The Upland Woman's Club House was the setting for a smartly appointed bridge tea at which Mrs. Frank K. Nichols and Mrs. Veeder South presided yesterday afternoon.

Attractive baskets of pink cherokee roses and sweet peas played a leading part in the decorations, and card tables were placed in the cosy reception room for the game of auction bridge. Fine scores were made by the players and dainty prizes were awarded to Mrs. Charles H. Wimpers, Mrs. Ruth Ingalls, Mrs. Samuel Rowe, Mrs. Harry W. Flowers and Mrs. William Kincaid. Following the play a delicious tea was served and Mrs. Nichols' and Mrs. South's guest list numbered

PARENTS INVITED TO BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION—

The parents and friends of the Camp Fire Girls of this district are invited to attend the Camp Fire Birthday celebration which will be given in the Chaffey Model Flat Monday evening at half past seven on March twenty-first.

The following groups will take part and they have arranged a Grand Council Fire and an interesting program to follow: Tatapochan, guardian Mrs. Bess R. Jones, assistant, Mrs. Peter A. Guthrie; Nakomis, guardian, Miss Geraldine Norton, assistant Mrs. Robert Henderson; and Opyokwa, guardian, Mrs. Ernest Cheel.

MRS. DAVID BRADFIELD IS DELIGHTFULLY SURPRISED—

Mrs. David Bradfield, who has recently moved into her new home on F street, was the incentive for a delightful surprise party given yesterday afternoon at her home by members of the Embroidery Club to which she belongs. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge and dainty table prizes were awarded the winners at the close of the tourney. Following the card games a delicious repast was enjoyed, with St. Patrick's Day, being carried out in the appointments and menu. At the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Bradfield was presented with a lovely gift for her new home and among those present at the happy affair were: Mrs. Francis Rogers, Mrs. H. C. Naylor, Mrs. Morris Reynolds, Mrs. Robert Spencer, Mrs. I. J. Linkey, Mrs. Hobart Alter, Mrs. Chester Holt, Mrs. Scott Weber, Mrs. Melvin Dinger, Miss Verona Schumacher and Mrs. Clarence Fossett of Pomona.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS MAY DAY BENEFIT—

Among the delightful affairs that are being planned for the very near future, is a May Day Benefit party that will be given by members of the American Legion Auxiliary. The affair will be in the nature of a card party and will be held the evening of May 2nd, at the Legion Home on Second avenue. Mrs. Sam Rowe has been appointed chairman, and she is naming a capable committee to assist her. Any one wishing to reserve card tables for the party are asked to call Mrs. Rowe.

UPLAND FOLKS WILL PICNIC AT ADELANTO—

A delightful affair that is scheduled for Sunday is the "family gathering" of the Gerry family that will be held at Adelanto, where George Gerry lives. A bountiful noon dinner will be enjoyed and then it is planned to motor through the surrounding country which is beginning to take on the colorings of the desert flowers.

Among those who are planning to motor to the desert are Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bordwell, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Drummond of Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Moore; Mr. and Mrs. J. Lynward Grahame, Mr. and Mrs. Elly Wright and Miss Lillian Ware.

ALICE O'BRIEN IS GRACIOUS YOUNG HOSTESS—

Miss Alice O'Brien presided at a charming St. Patrick party last evening when she entertained a group of her school mates, at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. E. O'Brien, 753 East Ninth street. The Irishman's brilliant green, sang a lilt throughout the lovely decorations, while the supper table with its attractive centerpiece was lovely indeed. A Clean Oil in a Cleaned Motor!

PAN-AM Motor Cleaning Machine Service

For Cleaning Motor, Transmission and Differential—Your Protection Lies in the Use of This Machine and Clean Oil at Regular Intervals!

Pan-Gas, Pan-Am Motor Oils and Greases

The PAN-AM MOTOR CLEANING MACHINE completely and thoroughly washes crank cases, transmissions and differentials in a few minutes—removing all traces of dirt and foreign substance—by forcing a few gallons of Cleaning Lubricant thru the motor, transmission or differential over and over again—filtering it automatically—until it runs clean.

The amount of residue thus removed is astounding! For example: A test of several crank cases by careful "flushing" removed an average of 32% of the dirt—68% still remained in the motor. The PAN-AM MOTOR CLEANING MACHINE was brought into action and this large percentage of muck was washed out instantly.

We are anxious to give you this service. Ask us about the PAN-AM MOTOR CLEANING MACHINE.

Buy and ride on Protected Tires. With each Tire purchased, we issue a Service Certificate of protection through The National Tire Service, Inc.

This Service Certificate protects you for one year against accidents, negligence, blowouts, cuts, bruises, rim cuts, or any hazard of the road which may render the tire useless.

Perfect protection with absence of all Tire expense for 12 months. You may now forget your Tire troubles for one year, no matter what happens to your tires.

COUNTRY CLUB ST. PATRICK TEA—

One of the most beautifully appointed of Country Club parties was the monthly Bridge Tea Tuesday afternoon at the Red Hill Country Club, the first of the spring series under the committee on "Cards and Teas," with Mrs. J. W. Heinecke and Mrs. Hill presiding as hostesses of the day. The ball-room and lounge of the handsome clubhouse presented a colorful scene, profusely decorated with tall sprays of white plum blossoms and lighted with many tall green candles, emphasizing the attractive motif of St. Patrick's Day. Over one hundred club members and their guests enjoyed the auction tournament, winner at each table being awarded a dainty table prize. A pretty basket of spring flowers, the first club prize, a complimentary gesture from the new president of the club, Mrs. Chas. Puckett, was awarded to Mrs. Welles T. Ross, with second club trophy being won by Mrs. Paul Nichols.

Featuring the tea hour were delightful Irish melodies as rendered by Mr. J. Lynwood Grahame, who was accompanied by Mrs. Robert Henderson in the following selections, "Mother Machree" and "Mollie Branigan," a lilting Irish tune which Mrs. Grahame announced was hundreds of years old. Mrs. Grahame, in her charming sweet soprano, favored, by request, with a modern version of the old time ballad, "Kathleen Mavourneen."

Mrs. Heinecke and Mrs. Hill presided at the tea-table, where also the green of Erin's Isle was noted in the handsome appointments and tempting collation.

The following West End hostesses entertained with one or more tables of guests: Mrs. Alfred L. Davenport, hostess to four tables of guests; Mrs. E. O. Bowden, entertaining with three tables; Mrs. Gertrude Reid, three tables; Mrs. C. C. Hamilton with two tables; Mrs. J. W. Heinecke, entertaining eight guests; Mrs. Chas. Barr, hostess to eight guests; entertaining with one table of guests, Mrs. I. C. Baxter, Mrs. Chas. Smith-Neille, Mrs. C. L. McLaughlin, Mrs. Noyes Thompson, Mrs. Chas. Puckett,

Mrs. J. E. Sawyer, Mrs. Donald Craig, Mrs. Barnett, Mrs. J. Lynwood Grahame

INTER-COUNTY COUNCIL MEETS IN SAN BERNARDINO—

The Inter-County Council of the American Legion Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting at the Arrowhead Hotel, San Bernardino, yesterday, the San Bernardino Auxiliary acting as hostesses.

Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and Mrs. Clyde Whitney, president of the San Bernardino Auxiliary introduced the speakers. Mr. Burr Belden, commander of the San Bernardino Post of the American Legion, and City Editor of the San Bernardino Sun, gave a very interesting talk on "Publicity." Mrs. R. Garner entertained with a reading. Mrs. Ethel Hearst, First Department Vice-President talked on membership and Mrs. Beth Rice, Hospital Chairman of Southern California told about the new hospital at Sawtelle. There are twenty-one sun rooms to be furnished and all the units are asked to help in this work as much as possible.

Mrs. Margaret Kaeding, State Chairman Child Welfare, told of the interesting and very necessary work being done at the new Burbank Home for children of World War Veterans.

Mrs. Alta Wilke of Blythe, Child Welfare Chairman of the Eleventh District, Mrs. Ella McCalla, alternate District Committee woman for Orange County all gave brief reports of the work they are doing.

Mrs. Bonnie Gray, of Redlands, president of the Inter-County Council presided at the meeting and called for the reports of the various units.

The members of the Corona Auxiliary invited the County Council to meet with them on the third Thursday in May at the Parkridge Country Club, which will be the next regular meeting of the Inter-County Council. Among those from the Upland organization who attended the meeting were Mrs. Hjalmer Anderson, president; Mrs. Harry Plum, Mrs. Arthur Pehl, Mrs. Thomas Nisbet, Mrs. H. O. Blohm, Mrs. Elly Wright, and Mrs. Earl Marsh.

LOCAL CANADIANS TO HAVE BIG RALLY SUNDAY, MARCH 27

According to advices from the headquarters of the Canadian Tourists' Society, a great rally of Canadians from this district is to be held at Brookside Park, Pasadena, on Sunday, March 27th, all day to give all those who have ever lived in Canada, an opportunity for the last time of meeting their friends from the old home town.

A great feature of this occasion will be the initiation of all former Canadians into the Dominion Old Boys & Girls Association, as honorary members. This will include over two-hundred from this district and over six-hundred from this county, it is said. Many noted personages, including former governors and premiers of Canadian provinces, will be heard. All Canadians, and former residents of the Dominion, as well as American friends, are cordially welcomed to this event, which will take the nature of a reunion and basket picnic.

At the last reunion Upland sent more former Canadians than any other section of this county. Special honor will be done to all attending from Ontario and Upland as this district was settled many years ago by thousands of the people from Ontario Province.

START PROJECT TO SAVE ARROWHEAD FROM DESTRUCTION

Civic Club of San Bernardino Takes Steps To Preserve Famous Natural Wonder On Nearby Mountinside

The huge natural arrowhead emblazoned on the southern slope of the San Bernardino mountains will be protected from the ravages of flood waters by a series of check dams constructed across portions of its surface, if tentative plans of the San Bernardino Kiwanis club are carried out.

Gains In Size

Since the recent storm that swept San Bernardino county a large scar on the west side of the arrowhead has greatly increased in size, until it now is 150 feet long and 50 feet across, ranging in depth from five to 12 feet, as was reported yesterday. The scar first made its appearance during a heavy storm three or four years ago.

With each successive rain slides occur on the banks of the scar and tons of earth and rock from the arrowhead go hurtling down a steep ravine at the lower base of the landmark. There is no brush on the scar to check the landslides.

Would Also Aid Growth

According to plans laid by the Kiwanis club committee, a series of small check dams would be constructed across the face of the scar to retard the sliding of the dirt. A heavier dam would be built across the lower end of the arrowhead where the end of the deep pit forms a junction with the ravine.

In this manner, it is pointed out, dirt and rock sliding from the bank of the scar would be checked before it left the arrowhead and gradually the growth of brush would spring up, entirely preventing the erosion which is threatening the natural emblem whose origin has long been a mystery to scientists and tourists.

JUDGE CRANE FINES SPEEDERS

On Lincoln's birthday Officer Louis Krommeyer arrested Franz Sachse, who drove a Lincoln car down Euclid Avenue at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Sachse was due at Redlands, where he was to attend a patriotic service. Returning on the Valley Boulevard, his car turned over and he was taken to the San Antonio Hospital. He has just been able to appear in court, where Judge Crane placed him under $15 bail for future appearance.

Francis Lea was fined $35 for going 45 miles an hour on Foothill Boulevard. Officer F. J. Freeman made the arrest.

H. J. Hartley was caught by Officer Carpenter driving 50 miles an hour on Foothill Boulevard, and was fined $35.

Peter J. Otto was travelling at the rate of 45 miles when picked up by Officer F. J. Freeman. He was fined $35.

NAN OF THE NEWS

"Only a shamrock, the Irishman's shamrock, from his own darling mother her blessing too she sent." I wonder how many remember that dear old Irish song that was so popular a few years ago, and I wonder how many have ever had the pleasure of seeing that song put into effect.

I have, and there was much of sweetness, much of sadness in the song, action, that was expressed on St. Patrick's Day when J. Lynward Grahame received his annual box of shamrocks, sent to him by a dear old Irish mother in Belfast, Ireland. That mother is seventy-nine years of age, but every year without fail she plants the tender little shamrock plants in a box some time during the month of January, tends them lovingly for weeks, 'cause she must be certain, no matter what happens, that her boy who is way over in the United States must have his Irish shamrock. Reams have been written about the Irish mothers, songs have been sung about their love and tenderness, but it is only when we come face to face with an incident of this sort that we realize what those songs mean.

Between twelve and fifteen million radio sets are in use in the world, according to a recent survey.

ADVERTISING MAN ROTARY SPEAKER

W. K. Beattie Chairman of Meeting—E. C. Mehl Announces Many Going To Conference In April

J. O. Cook, Jr., assistant advertising manager of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, was the speaker, before the Rotary Club at the luncheon Tuesday noon at The Sycamores.

Mr. Cook came as speaker for the business methods committee of the club, W. K. Beattie acting as chairman for the day.

Mr. Cook devoted his theme to service and stated that although we had heard much about service since luncheon clubs came to existence, it was several years ago that the California Fruit Growers Exchange adopted the idea in the hope of greatly increasing the consumption of citrus fruit.

"One hundred thousand people are engaged in selling oranges and lemons throughout the United States, Canada and foreign countries, and the Exchange has a very close relationship with about ten thousand of them and you men can readily see that our tie up is with the heavy buyers with a sort of fatherly interest in the dealers who sell only a few boxes each year," said Mr. Cook.

"We are assisting first in advertising how citrus fruit can be used and then in assisting in sales through attractive windows and counter displays. This is where our service comes in and we are devoting a vast amount of time to that particular phase of the business."

To Stockton

Twenty-two people will attend the District Rotary Conference at Stockton in April, according to E. C. Mehl, who is in charge of reservations at the northern city. Forty will probably attend.

New Member

Upland Rotary's newest member is J. W. Shepperson, who recently came from Canada and purchased the Paul residence and orange grove on north Euclid avenue. Mr. Shepperson, who was formerly a Rotarian, stated that he was delighted over being invited to join the Upland Rotary Club and that himself and family greatly appreciated the welcome they had received into the community.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sargent returned on Thursday from Des Palos, San Joaquin Valley, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. F. W. Batten and family. While in the North, Mr. and Mrs. Sargent motored into Yosemite and enjoyed the novelty of a snow storm. The whole valley was covered with a heavy mental of snow and on Sunday thousands of cars were registered in the park. The fine new highway that has recently been completed makes winter travel safe and at the same time is extremely attractive.

Judge Gives Days

Jail sentences, without the alternative of fines, were the order of business Tuesday afternoon in Judge George R. Holbrook's court, when three cases were heard.

Earl A. Carlin, a recluse, who was taken into custody Tuesday by Chief of Police Arthur Axley and Patrolman R. S. Sydenstricker after neighbors had telephoned the police station that the man had beaten Walter Kellogg, a 13-year-old boy, with a hoe, was handed a 60-day vacation in the County Jail when he was haled before the court. When the officers called to arrest Carlin he refused them admittance and they were forced to break into his shack in South Cucamonga avenue.

Mrs. Mary Ruiz of East Willow street, who was arrested Sunday afternoon on the complaint of Joseph Moya on a peace disturbance charge, drew a 60-day sentence from Judge Holbrook. This was suspended by the court, however, on condition that Mrs. Ruiz leaves Ontario within 48 hours and does not return. According to witnesses the woman publicly conducted herself in an unseemly and indecent manner. She expressed the intention of leaving town.

Y. M. C. A. Drive Successful

That the annual Y. M. C. A. Round-up for members, which came to a close Wednesday night, was one of the most successful ever conducted by the organization was indicated yesterday when it was announced that 310 names had been signed for membership, exceeding the quota set at the beginning of the drive by ten names.

The final check-up revealed the fact that Murray McNeill's Bar M ranch outfit had carried off high honors in the round-up, having lassoed 133 of the 310 members, and as a result of this record the Bar M crew will be guests of the other workers at a chicken dinner, which is scheduled to be given March 28 at 6:30 P. M. in Armstrong Hall.

According to the announcement of Elmer Coble, local secretary of the Y, the plans for the construction of a new Y. M. C. A. building on the site of the old structure may materialize as a result of the successful round-up.

Rotary Anns Hosts

Rotary Anns took full charge of yesterday's noonday luncheon meeting of the Ontario Rotary Club at the Casa Blanca Hotel when they proceeded to not only put on the entire program but assessed all fines.

In honor of St. Patrick's day the women were all dressed in bonnets and smocks of emerald hue. Mrs. George A. McCrea, wife of the club president, presided over the meeting while Mrs. B. W. Spencer acted as program chairman.

Among the interesting features of the entertainment was "An Ode to the President," written by Mrs. Glenn D. Smith and read by Mrs. Geoffrey J. Fleming. Mrs. Claude Randall gave a short talk on suggestions for the program committees and Mrs. H. M. Shattuck discussed boy work.

The subject of "Classification" was ably handled by Mrs. W. H. Tangeman while Mrs. Oscar Arnold spoke on the topic "Would St. Patrick Have Made a Good Rotarian?" A number of Irish songs were sung by Mrs. Gordelia Storey Hutchinson, who appeared in Irish costume.

Old Timers Talk

The weekly luncheon meeting of the Ontario Lions Club at the Casa Blanca Hotel Wednesday noon, was in the nature of a "Pioneer Days" program which featured talks by three "old timers" of the West End.

Judge George R. Holbrook, who came to Ontario in 1883 and is credited with being the city's oldest resident, recounted early history stating that when he came there were but 16 children in the Ontario-Upland school district.

George B. Sell, who came to Ontario in 1895, told of the thrilling robbery of the old Ontario State Bank which took place in the "Gay Nineties." He recited how Fred Stamm, the cashier, had been knocked over the head and locked in the vault by the daylight bandits after they had robbed the institution and how a horseman was dispatched to San Antonio Heights to inform George Stamm, a brother and the only man in the colony at the time who knew the vault's combination of what had taken place. A record run was made down the hill from the heights in the old gravity car, which was in operation at that time, George Stamm at the bank.

which was located at the Southwest corner of Main street and Euclid avenue, within ten minutes after receiving notification.

Fletcher Manker of Upland, a resident of the West End for the past 40 years, reviewed much interesting early-day history. Manker told of the heavy windstorm that visited this section shortly after his arrival, which wrecked the original Rose Block which was a wooden structure.

V. L. Olinger presided over Wednesday's meeting and J. Audrey Armstrong acted as program chairman. Musical numbers were furnished by the Armstrong Nurseries Quartet.

Hold Formal Opening

The formal opening of the new Hotel Randall gave a short talk on suggestions for the program committees and Mrs. H. M. Shattuck discussed boy work.

The subject of "Classification" was ably handled by Mrs. W. H. Tangeman while Mrs. Oscar Arnold spoke on the topic "Would St. Patrick Have Made a Good Rotarian?" A number of Irish songs were sung by Mrs. Gordelia Storey Hutchinson, who appeared in Irish costume.

Saturday afternoon and evening the hotel will be open for public inspection. A special dinner has been provided for Saturday evening at $1.50 per plate which will be followed by dancing.

MISSOURIANS WILL HAVE JOLLY WINTER RALLY

Under the auspices of the Missouri State Society of Los Angeles County the mammoth picnic reunion of all the Missourians of all the Southland will be held in Sycamore Grove Park Sunday, March 27, with basket dinners at noon and program to follow. County headquarters and registers will be open all day and hot coffee served to all badge buyers. President James A. Lang and Secretary David Small are making the plans and arranging the details for the best ever.

Tourists will be welcomed and may meet many old-time friends. Ask questions of the officers or of C. H. Parsons, secretary of the Federation of State Societies, Hotel Rosslyn, Faber 3300.

Live fish become "seasick" when transported in railway cars, and a special tank car is being built to transport them to the new $3,000,000 aquarium at Chicago.

CHAFFEY TRACK TEAM WINS OVER COVINA COLTS, 85-37

STEINER MAKES VERY LENGTHY TOSS

Chaffey Has Wonderful Trio of Weight Men—
"Pop" Expects This Trio To Gather Many Points In Future Meets This Year

The Chaffey Track Squad emerged victorious in their second dual meet of the year when they vanquished Covina by the score of 85 to 37. The meet was held on the Colt's field on Thursday, March 11. Fred Steiner, Chaffey's star weight man, broke the discus record of the school with a mighty toss of 143 feet 4 inches. The former record was 129 feet, 3 inches, held by Platt. Steiner also won the shot with a throw of 47 ft. 2 inches. Ralph Scott was closely pressed for first honors in the broad jump by Floyd Plasman; Scott won the event with a jump of 20 ft. 6 inches. Bert Reed sprung a surprise when he grabbed first honors in the high jump with a leap of 5 ft. 7 1/2 inches. Riggs, Chaffey's pole vaulter, placed second in his event with Larick taking fourth place.

Captain Guy Hoyer ran his usual fast race to take first place in the 880 run by the excellent time of 2:06. Harry Leiser, Chaffey's new distance runner, showed up well and took third honors. Gartner, of Chaffey, placed fourth in this event. In the high hurdle race the Tigers copped the first three places. Bryden, Cornelius and Schmickel finished in the order named. Plasman was barely nosed out for first honors in the 100 yard dash. Leech and Cornelius finished third and fourth. Gillilan won the mile for Chaffey in the very fair time of 5 minutes 4 seconds. Chaffey's relay team, composed of Plasman, Mikami, Leech and Cornelius, easily won their race.

"There's not a mile in Ireland's Isle where the dirty vermin musters;
Where'er he put his dear forefoot he murdered them in clusters.
The toads went hop, the frogs went flop, slap-dash into the water
And the beasts committed suicide to save themselves from slaughter."
—IRISH SONG.

O'Riley: Why do you wear your stocking wrong side outward.
Raffert: 'Coz there's a hole on tother side.

JUNIOR COLLEGE AGAIN LOSES TO H.S. IN BASEBALL

TIGERS MAKE ERRORS

Coach Wilding's Boys Blank J. C. In Very Slow Game—Third Straight Win

Last Wednesday night the C. U. H. S. baseball team defeated for the third time the Junior College men. The J. C. team was whitewashed this time, being shut-out by the score of 6-0. This is the largest score of any of the games played previously, the other scores being 3-1 and 6-4 for the first and second games respectively.

The entire J. C. team played ragged ball. Each member of the team made at least one error, and not a man made a clean hit. The high school seven worked well—especially Jordan their twirler who had plenty on the ball and kept the College men guessing. Besides striking out several men, Jordan caught three men who led too far from first base.

This week the J. C. team met the High School on Wednesday night and Redlands University on Thursday night.

The games played thus far show the need for hard workouts for the team. They especially need batting practice, for the conference contains many noteworthy pitchers who will oppose Chaffey.

Coach Wilding of the High School will use any of the J. C. men in his practice at nights after school. Because so many of the fellows work after school, it has been very difficult to hold regular practices.

250 MOTHERS ATTEND PARTY

Surpassing all records of attendance at similar parties given in the past years, the annual Girls' League Mothers' Party, given last Thursday, March 10, in the auditorium was a great success in every way. Approximately two hundred and fifty mothers attended the event.

"His Old Sweethearts," a short pantomime-play, was presented as the principal part of the program. The story of the play concerned a bachelor, who, upon the eve of his marriage, received a number of letters from old sweethearts of his. As he read each letter, the girl from whom the message had come, appeared as a picture in a large frame in the middle of the stage.

First came the grammar school girl dressed in a short gingham frock with her books in one hand and a slate in the other, upon which was written in a large scrawly hand, "I love you." The next picture was that of the high school girl; then the stunning actress appeared. She was followed by a college girl in cap and gown; then the winter girl, with the direct opposite, the summer girl, following. The riding girl in white and black habit appeared next; then the debutante "came forth in a blaze of glory." She was followed by a striking young widow, who disappeared as had the others, only to have the bride appear dressed in her wedding gown with flowing veil and carrying a large bouquet of white flowers.

This great musician was extremely complimentary when Mr. Blakeslee played the score for her last Sunday, being especially pleased with the story. She said it was the only Indian opera in which she had ever really wished to participate because it is completely satisfied her from an Indian's viewpoint.

Another important soloist who has just been secured and for whose accommodation the date was arranged is Chief Yowlanche, basso. This prominent Indian musician will take the part of Red Cloud, the villain.

POSTURE TEST BRINGS HEALTH WEEK TO CLOSE

CUP AWARDED TOMORROW

Girls are Given Posture Tags At First Of Week—Poster Contest Is Successful

As a fitting climax to the activities of Health Week, which started March 14 and extends to March 18, the Chaffey girls will hold a posture contest this afternoon in the gymnasium. The girl with the best posture in her class will be one of the four to contest in the finals. The winners, who will be announced at a Girls' League meeting tomorrow, will receive a beautiful loving cup donated by Miss Mabon, girls' physical education instructor.

One of the interesting features of the week was the poster contest which was held March 14. One poster bore the witty caption, "Don't be afraid to bathe. You won't shrink." The posters were required to have been turned in before February 25, to give the judges time to place them.

A Health Poem Contest was held yesterday, which elicited much doggerel and some poetry. Many useful ideas were obtained from the poems.

An instructive and interesting exhibit of old beauty secrets, and the modern ways of securing beauty and style was held in the girls' clubroom yesterday. Criticisms of the modern incorrect beautifying methods featured the exhibit.

According to the plan decided upon, every girl at Chaffey has an opportunity to take part in Health Week. Tags have been distributed, which the girls will lose if they are found in poor posture. The interest in Health Week is kept up by the contests, one of which occurs each day.

STUDENT BODIES WELCOMED M. R. HILL LAST MON.

Monday's assembly was of great interest to the Chaffey and Junior College Student Bodies. Mr. Hill gave a short summary of his trip. All of his thoughts were in terms of the students, proved by his speech Monday morning.

The east is not acquainted with the public Junior College, as yet, and it is very evident that California is in the forefront in every stage of education. There are 25,000,000 public school students in the United States and one-tenth of the high school students are in California. The California University is the largest in the world.

Mr. Hill told very little about the Senate Chamber as he was not allowed to visit notes.

In Denver, he visited the high school which is a $1,000,000 plant. The campus of this large, expensive school is bare of foliage and shrubs. Each department was on one floor, and the building was several stories high. He found this true of the majority of schools in the east. In the Denver University library, Mr. Hill found a quotation of George Washington's to a young man just beginning in life. This was very interesting and instructive.

Mr. Hill began and concluded his speech with thanks to the students for their remarkable behavior during his absence. He expressed his appreciation and was exceedingly glad to get back.

Milo Vickery sang three vocal solos: "Drake Goes West," "The Unknown Soldier," and "O'er the Billowy Sea."

SHAMROCKS FROM OULD ERIN

"So success attend St. Patrick's fist,
For he's a Saint so clever;
Oh, he gave the snakes and toads a twist
And bothered them forever."
—BENNETT

"When law can stop the blades of grass from growin' as they grow,
And when the leaves in summertime their color do not show,
Then I will change the color, too,
I wear in my canbean
But 'til that day, please God, I'll stick to wearin' o' the green."
—OLD BALLAD.

TIGER NETSTERS WILL PLAY SAN DIEGO SATURDAY

SAN DIEGO TO PLAY HERE

San Diego Has Very Strong Team and Should Win Over the Tiger Squad

The San Diego Tennis Team will come to Chaffey next Saturday for a practice tournament with the Tiger aggregation. This tourney will be one of the best that the Chaffey squad has participated in this year, and it will very probably exhibit some excellent tennis playing, as the San Diego boys constitute a strong team.

The Chaffey team is expected to put up a strong battle but San Diego will very probably emerge the winner. Thus far the Tiger netsters have encountered some stiff competition, but it has given them invaluable practice. Coach Alter has been scheduling as many tournaments as possible and he hopes to have quite a few more before the Citrus Belt League Tournaments take place.

Last Tuesday Alter's squad held a practice tournament with the Chaffey Junior College, and although there has been nothing scheduled to date, it is expected that there will be one or more meets next week.

The San Diego team has been practicing consistently and they are very probably in good trim. Last year's San Diego squad took a trip to San Francisco, playing tourneys with many of the high schools and colleges between the two places.

There will probably be six players to come to Chaffey from San Diego, and these will very likely be opposed by Captain Art Flum, Jack Walker, Daniel Howell, Bob Allen, Hal Harlow and Bob Coffin.

THREE ACT PLAY GIVEN MARCH 10

The Ta-Ta-Pochin Campfire Girls gave an interesting three-act play, "The Return of Rosalia," in Assembly Thursday morning, March 10. This program, which proved very successful is the first given by a club or organization this year.

This play was written by a guardian of Campfire Girls for Campfire work. The plot concerns the kidnapping of a small baby by the Gypsies, and her return at the age of seventeen. The mannerisms of a group of Campfire Girls, under the guardianship of the lost girl's mother, aid greatly in the interest of the plot.

Denmark is the only European country which has retained public executions.

CHAFFEY TRACK TEAM GOES TO HUNTINGTON BEACH MEET

TIGER TEAM SHOULD PLACE HIGH

Although Chaffey Will Meet Many Good Teams, Pop Expects To Win—Twenty-five Points Will Win The Meet

"Pop Kegley's aggregation of cinder path artists will journey to Huntington Beach next Saturday to compete with twenty-one other schools in a track meet on the Huntington Beach High School Oval. Although many strong teams are to be met in this meet, Coach Kegley feels sure that his team will be among the first three schools when the day is over. There is a good chance of the wing-footed Tigers coming home with first place. "Twenty-five points will take the meet," says Pop.

Fred Steiner, gaint weight hurler, is billed to take first place in both the discus and the shot, bringing in ten points. Dornig and Milleman are both expected to place in these two events. Hoyer should take first or second in the half. Reeder and Leiser should also place. Plasman, if he does as he is expected, will take place in the hundred yard dash. In the broad jump both Scott and Plasman are expected to be point winners. Chaffey should take a point or two in the mile and probably the high hurdles.

The strongest competition that the Tigers will meet will be from Glendale and San Diego. These schools have some fine athletes and records are likely to be shattered if good weather prevails.

Gold, silver, bronze, and green bronze medals will be given to the four highest men in each event. Many stalwart Chaffey lads will come to school during next week wearing these little metal tags.

During 1924 United States tourists spent approximately $350,000,000 in Europe.

"BAB" WILL BE GIVEN APRIL 1

As a result of a decision made by the Junior committee, the annual Junior class play, "Bab," will be given Friday evening, April 1. "Bab" is a unusually fine mirth-provoking comedy in four acts, written by Mary Roberts Rinehart and dramatized by Edward Childs Carpenter. The general plot of the play is suggestive of Booth Tarkington's stories, but in this case the dramatist does for the "sub-due" what Tarkington did for the boy of seventeen. "Bab" is made an understandable, charming and sympathetic little character who creeps into your heart as soon as you know her. Pauline Sharp will play the part of this winsome miss.

Cucamonga - Alta Loma News

Local History Featured In Address

San Bernardino County, one of the richest in the state in historical lore, with five different and distinct epochs of history; the Indian period of the dim past; the Spanish period; the romantic and colorful period of Mexican occupation, when the history of this locality began, 1822 to 1848

the American-Cosmopolitan period; with the Chino and Cucamonga districts historically the richest of all; was the opening declaration of an intensely interesting talk on "History and Landmarks" by Mrs. George W. Beattie, of Highland, county chairman of California History and Landmarks, before members of the Cucamonga Woman's Club in session last Friday afternoon, delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Chas. Beckley in Hermosa avenue, with Mrs. Arthur S. Capen assistant hostess.

Mrs. Beattie, a speaker of charming personality, compared the east, with its many historic shrines, to the west, with not so many, but rich and much older in history, having been explored by settlers from Mexico before the Pilgrims landed at Plymouth Rock. The early development of this section of San Bernardino County was told with many interesting details of local interest, such as the existence of great swamp lands near the Red Hills, a stream of water flowing 200 inches even in mid-summer, the great number of springs from which Cucamonga derives her name, the luxurious growth of trees, and underbrush, all making for a beautiful and restful spot along the Kings' Highway for many a weary traveler; above all we were advised to cherish our Spanish heritage as something original and different, and by preserving this history, create a sympathetic feeling for the past that will make for present loyalty and higher ideals among the younger generation today.

A delightful vocal solo, "Mother Machree," appropriate to the St. Patrick season, was rendered by Mrs. Russell Huffman, while Mrs. W. I. Pinckney read a choice little poem, apropos the February-March rains, entitled, "California, Wearin' of the Green."

Announcement was made by Mrs. E. S. Bishop presiding, of tickets for sale for the Benefit Concert the night of March 24th at Chaffey High School, by M. Louise Vienne, organist at Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris, who, though blind, is one of the outstanding figures in French music today. The concert is in charge of Mrs. A. L. Weber and Mrs. Sanford Bailou and is for the benefit of the San Antonio Hospital.

During the social hour, a tempting collation was served, appointments being prettily carried out in the St. Patrick motif.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. H. Powellson, in Hermosa avenue, Mrs. A. H. Bridge assisting, Friday afternoon March 25th.

Unique Party Entertains

The Aloha Dinner Club were guests at a delightfully novel dinner and card party last Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Roth entertained at their home in Euclid avenue, Ontario, with a jolly "Jiggs" party emphasizing the motif of the St. Patrick season. A variety of bright spring blossoms decorated the home and centered the dining tables; gaily colored posters of the "Jiggs" family, of "Bringing up Father" fame, were posed among the flowers, while score cards were brightly colored pen and ink sketches of Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs, the clever handiwork of the hostess. The dinner menu also consisted of several delectable Irish dishes, all of which added to the enjoyment of the evening. In the 500 tournament following the dinner hour, prizes for the winning high score won for Mrs. W. J. Kincaid a fancy rolling pin; Mr. Gilbert Dziel was awarded gentleman's prize for best scoring. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gregg won consolations for lowest scores. Specially invited guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Harvey and Mr. Vincent Roth.

At the next meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe will be hosts at a St. Patrick dinner and card party Thursday evening, March 17th, at their home in Alta Loma.

Rapid Progress at Rabbitry

Construction activities are now well under way at the new Rabbitry in the Alta Loma section, the improvements, which are located in the far northeast corner of the tract, on Archibald avenue, and the company's newly opened road through the property, already up as to the frame-work, consist of five or six good size dwellings and a long open shed; ground is being leveled for another large warehouse and just adjoining on the south are the tents of the construction camp.

Miss Dorothy Sinclair of Chicago accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Wilson of Detroit, arrived here unexpectedly last Wednesday to surprise her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe and family, and her grand mother, Mrs. Kate Sinclair, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Thorpe, and family, for the past six weeks. On Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Thorpe motored with their guests to Glendale for a call on their son Chas. Thorpe, Jr. and family. Here they were concerned to find their young grandson, Chas. Jr., ill with pneumonia, but past the danger point, much to their relief.

Misses Margaret and Louise Beattie entertained members of Mrs. H. W. Hawkinson's Sunday School class of the Upland Presbyterian church with a delightful St. Patrick's party on Saturday evening at their home in Archibald avenue. The famous green of Erin's Isle prevailed in the decorations, lighted candles and in the dainty collation served at the close of the evening. Forty guests enjoyed the gala affair.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Kincaid of Hermosa avenue, were hosts at a family dinner party of charming appointments Sunday in honor of their little daughter, Betty Jean's fourth birthday, their guests being the grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kincaid, of Cucamonga, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Nicks and son Clyde, of Redlands, and little Betty's aunt, Mrs. Hinckle, also of Redlands.

Mrs. Carrie F. Smith has sold to Roy Karr, five acres of her home place on Archibald avenue, the property being set to apricots, and fronting on the new Arrowhead Highway. Mr. Karr, who lives in Upland, formerly of Cucamonga, purchased the five acres adjoining the apricots on the north not long since from James Glenn, thus giving him a ten acre tract through to the highway.

Some two-hundred people attended the chicken dinner on last Friday evening at the Cucamonga M. E. Church, the dinner being prepared and engineered by the young women of the Epworth League, under the supervision of Mrs. Elsie Cannon. The church was prettily decorated with spring flowers for the occasion and following the supper, a musicale and social time was enjoyed in the auditorium.

Mrs. W. J. Kincaid returned home last Thursday after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Frank Keen in Los Angeles, and with her sister, Mrs. David Keyes and family at Long Beach, having returned to the beach with them the previous week-end.

Mrs. W. A. Lucas of Los Angeles, formerly of Cucamonga, who was an unexpected guest this week at the home of Mrs. A. C. Beattie, is confined to her home with severe illness and forced to postpone her visit here for a week or two. Mrs. Lucas, who is well known here, lives with her son, Percy, who is radio operator at the Angeles Temple and her daughters, Miss Hope and Miss Susan Frances, in Highland Park.

Mrs. Vada Slye, who has been sojourning at Murietta Springs for the past three weeks, was expected home the first of the week to resume her duties as Cucamonga's postmistress. Mrs. A. K. Stafford, her assistant, expected leave on a week-end trip to San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bennett have moved into their newly completed home in Amethyst street, Alta Loma.

Mrs. J. W. McKee, of No. Hellman avenue, is leaving this week for San Francisco, where she expects to enjoy a visit with her son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Beattie entertained informally at dinner on Friday evening, with covers arranged at the prettily appointed table for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Fisher, both Mr. Palmer and Mr. Fisher being well-known on the Chaffey High School faculty.

Mrs. H. H. Thomas will be hostess on Wednesday, entertaining at luncheon and Bridge, members of her afternoon club, the Wednesday Bridge Club, at her attractive ranch home in State Highway.

Sam Belden of Los Angeles, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Belden on Sunday.

Mrs. A. S. Guthrie, of San Bernardino, was a Thursday visitor at the home of her brother, W. J. Kincaid.

The Study Section of the Cucamonga Woman's Club will be entertained Friday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. A. C. Beattie, with Mrs. C. A. Larson, of San Bernardino director.

Plan Luncheon and Food Sale. Cucamonga Woman's Club are busy this week with arrangements for their annual food sale and luncheon to be held this coming Saturday, March 19th, at Billings Grocery Store in Alta Loma. An appetizing hot luncheon, cafeteria style will be served during the noon hour, with a sale of cooked foods throughout the day. Special orders will be received in advance; phone Mrs. W. E. Morse, chairman of committee. This is the annual food sale given by the clubwomen to raise funds to carry on their various philanthropies throughout the ensuing year. Miss Lorine Parkin is in charge of the poster exhibit advertising.

Benefit Dance Success. Registering a big success socially and financially, the benefit dinner and dance sponsored by the Cucamonga Service Club, complimenting Mrs. George Pohler, hostess manager and her employees at the Sycamore Inn, was enjoyed by over one-hundred and fifty service-men, with their wives sweethearts and guests, at the popular hostelry Monday evening. A peppy jazz orchestra from San Bernardino furnished the music for the dancing which followed a wonderful good dinner, with musical numbers by the well known young tenor of Upland, William Seguin, who was accompanied by Miss Leigh. In addition to the music and dancing, four tables of players enjoyed a card tourney in the lobby. Everyone voted the affair a most delightful one.

Bridge Club Entertained. Miss Gertrude Reid was hostess on Tuesday entertaining members of her afternoon club, the Alta Loma Bridge at the Jolly St. Patrick Tea at the Red Hill Country Club. Highest score in the card tourney was made by Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe, with Mrs. B. H. Williams second. Enjoying Miss Reid's hospitality were Mrs. J. H. Williams, guest of the afternoon, and the following Bridge Club members: Mrs. W. J. Kincaid, Mrs. H. G. Klusman, Mrs. Chas. F. Thorpe, Mrs. Franklin Roth, Mrs. Gilbert Dziel, Mrs. J. H. Gregg, Mrs. W. H. Converse, Mrs. B. H. Wilson, Mrs. H. L. Salisbury and Mrs. E. S. Bishop.

Distinguished Guests Visit Here. Mr. and Mrs. Harry I. de Berard entertained on Sunday distinguished guests at dinner, Colonel and Mrs. W. C. Gardenhire of Riverside at their home in Archibald avenue and Sixth street. Colonel Gardenhire has recently arrived in Riverside from Washington, D. C., to take charge of the March Aviation Bill, which has just been re-opened or rehabilitated by the U. S. Government. His wife is an old childhood friend of Mrs. de Berard, who both lived back in Denver, Colo.

J. F. Grass, Under goes Operation. J. F. Grass, Jr., prominent citrus grower of Alta Loma, underwent an operation for appendicitis in Los Angeles last week, his many friends here hoping to hear of his early convalescence.

Prof. Mather to Address Club. Cucamonga Woman's Club will have the pleasure of hearing Prof. W. W. Mather, of the Chaffey Faculty, always a popular speaker before the club, at their meeting Friday, March 25th, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Powellson in Hermosa avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Motsinger returned home Monday evening after spending Sunday and Monday visiting relatives in Los Angeles.

E. S. Bishop was a business visitor to the Angel City on Monday.

Frank L. Gates of Globe, Ariz., is the guest of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Larson and children at their home in Turner avenue.

Mrs. Kate Sinclair, who has been visiting her brother, Chas. F. Thorpe and family, for the past two months, left on Monday to visit friends in Los Angeles for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Keyes enjoyed Sunday in Pasadena, where they joined a happy family party and reunion at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. L. Parker and family. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Keyes, Jr., with their baby girl, and Miss Helen Keyes, of El Segundo, were also in the party.

Mrs. J. E. Davis returned recently to her home in Hermosa avenue, after two weeks' enjoyable sojourn at Long Beach, where she visited with her brother and his family.

Mrs. E. M. Crandall is enjoying a stay at the M. E. Parsonage, being much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rupp, with their motor-guests, Mrs. J. C.

WARNING AGAINST MORE GRAPEFRUIT

Schoonover Says Industry Is Being Overdone In Imperial Valley—Good Price Now, But 5,000 to 6,000 Acres Planted

That grapefruit is not the best crop for Imperial Valley beyond the 1,000 or so acres to supply the Pacific Coast, is the opinion of Warren Schoonover, extension specialist in citrus culture for the University of California. This is true despite the fact that Imperial Valley grapefruit won first place at the National Orange Show, held at San Bernardino.

California growers are operating solely in a protected market, he said, since Florida fruit is kept out by quarantine, due to diseases which apparently have no effect upon the bearing qualities of Florida trees. Having no outside competition, grapefruit prices within California remain high, the fruit selling in Los Angeles for $3 and $3.50. However, 1,000 acres in full bearing and under proper cultivation is ample to supply the coast, Says Schoonover. At present, there are 5,000 to 6,000 acres planted in Imperial Valley. Only a few acres are in bearing and owners of these are reaping a harvest, but those orchards which will not come into bearing for several years face low market prices, declares Schoonover. Besides the many acres coming into bearing in California, there will be many in Texas which will come in soon, not to mention Florida.

There are several reasons for low cost of production in Florida compared with California. One is, no irrigation costs. Florida climate is warm and Powellson, Mrs. J. G. Stoebe, Mrs. O. T. Hatch, Mrs. Mary Minor, and Rev. E. M. Crandall, drove to San Dimas on Wednesday, the ladies to attend the semi-district Home Missionary meeting in that city. Mr. Rupp and Dr. Crandall motored on to Los Angeles, the latter journeying on to Eagle Rock to call on a cousin, who was seriously ill. The entire party returned home the same evening.

moist, and that produces heavier bearing trees than warm and dry, as is the case with California. Not only are irrigation costs saved, but Florida trees bear four or five times as heavily as California. From five to six boxes for a tree in good bearing is the rule here, while Florida trees are reported to bear as many as 30 boxes each. Floridians fertilize much more heavily than Californians, but that is a handicap easily overcome.

Schoonover declares if grapefruit is planted on the richest, softest, deepest valley soil, under which there is no water table, and given constant care by the owner, the grapefruit is a good crop, but that it is an expensive mistake to plant on any but the best soil due to the keen competition expected later.

Authorities doubt very much whether grapefruit is the crop which will provide the most revenue for Imperial Valley, although many people are planting orchards at present. The date palm is considered one of the best crops for the future, due to the fact that it can be planted on comparatively poor soil, is a desert tree, so has no fear of drought, does not particularly mind alkali and brings in about as heavy revenue as any crop.

Dancing

The constant and rapid growth of this business has necessitated more room. We have, therefore, taken the adjoining store and by adding it to our former one have more than doubled our floor space—now having 3,000 square feet of space for our display room and service department. After remodeling and beautifying the entire building, we are now open for your inspection and cordially invite you to be our guest Saturday at our formal opening. You will find here one of the most beautiful stores of its kind. A visit will prove both interesting and educational.

LINOLEUMS

We are offering for your selection the largest stock of Linoleums ever attempted to be carried outside of Los Angeles.

We have now in stock 165 rolls of the newest and latest patterns in Armstrong's Linoleum, from the lowest price to the highest grades, that are sure to please you.

DRAPERIES

An added feature of our new store is our Drapery Department.

In response to an obvious need and many requests, we have installed and equipped one of the most up-to-date Drapery Shops that can be found, under the expert management of Mr. George P. Lichty, an interior decorator of wide experience.

Please feel free to call upon Mr. Lichty for free advice in home-decorating problems, without obligation.

Extensive Stock of Rugs

The Rug Department in our enlarged store will be bigger than ever. As an indication of its extent, we are carrying now more than 120 room-size Rugs in Wiltons, Velvets and Axminsters, in newest designs and in all grades.

Attractive Bridge Luncheon
With St. Patrick's motif as the inspiration for a smartly appointed one o'clock luncheon, Mrs. H. H. Thomas was hostess on Wednesday to members of the Wednesday Bridge Club and several invited guests, at her home in State Highway. Lovely spring flowers, harmonizing with the pretty color scheme, were used in decorative effect throughout the charming living-rooms, where three tables were invitingly arranged for the auction tourney of the afternoon. In the play, Mrs. W. E. Kincaid was awarded the club prize, with Mrs. Frank Freemire carrying away the guest trophy.

Enjoying the delightful afternoon as Mrs. Thomas' guests were the following club-members: Mrs. W. E. Morse, Mrs. C. B. Mot, singer, Mrs. Wm. M. Kincaid, of Cucamonga; Mrs. L. A. Weller, Mrs. Leigh Thompson, Mrs. Walter E. Kincaid and Mrs. D. E. Myers, all of Upland; special guests were Mrs. J. H. Titus of Ontario; Mrs. Samuel B. Rowe, of Cucamonga; Mrs. Harold C. Moore, Upland, and Mrs. Frank Freemire, of Lime Springs, Iowa, a visitor from the Southland and an old friend of the hostess, Mrs. Thomas, when both lived in the Hawkeye state.

SPRING Alterations

You wouldn't hesitate to enlarge the street entrance to your place of business if customers found it constantly congested. The telephone is an equally important avenue of customer contact and merits like consideration.

Increasingly, business is being conducted over the telephone. Frequent reports that your "line is busy" lead to customer dissatisfaction.

Be sure that your telephone installation is adequate to take care of the normal growth of your business.

Telephone service installations adapted to every requirement will be cheerfully discussed upon application to our Business Office.

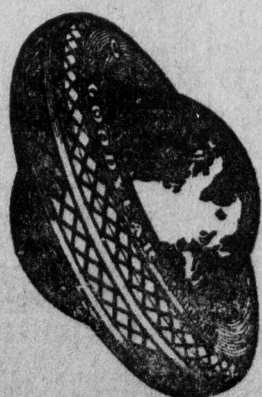

Adequate telephone service means customer satisfaction.

From the Chaffey Tatler-Thrasher

DEBATE TEAMS ARE SELECTED

"Resolved, that the Soviet Government should be Recognized" is the question for the third C. B. L. debate of the season to be held with Riverside and Colton.

The members of the Chaffey team are: John Mehl and Clement Cole, affirmative; Roland Rutledge and Gertrude Bond, negative. Juanita Lutz and Ida Vernon will not participate in this debate because of outside activities, but Juanita will receive a gold pin for debate at the end of the year.

Roland Rutledge and John Mehl are well qualified to take the places left by Juanita and Ida, and will do all in their power to help Chaffey win the championship. Clement and Gertrude are old debaters, and as they will be able to take part in the debate again, will do much to make the next debate a successful one. Coach "Pop" Kegley is confident that, in spite of the fact that two of the debaters are new, the team will be unusually good in both argument and refutation.

SEVERE CRITIC PRAISES OPERA BY BLAKESLEE

ORCHESTRATION WRITTEN
Composer Receives Advice Of Maestro Cannone, Coach Of Late Caruso

When in Rome last spring and summer Mr. Blakeslee devoted all of his spare time, outside of his vocal studies, to the writing of the orchestration of his American Indian Opera, "The Legend of Wiwasti."

He was particularly fortunate in having the counsel of Maestro Cannone, eminent vocal authority and formerly assistant conductor at the San Carlos Opera House, of Naples and the La Scala Opera House, at Milan. Signor Cannone was conductor at San Carlos when the great tenor Caruso first appeared in opera, and coached Caruso in his roles; he was also a personal friend of Verdi, greatest of Italian operatic composers.

Mr. Blakeslee thus had the benefit of study with a singularly gifted and experienced operatic authority. Curiously enough the one factor of the opera that puzzled him, was the decidedly rapid and forceful action of the play. Most operas move slowly with a lack of sustained dramatic interest. This very point has been pronounced by American critics as one of the greatest value as the day of slow moving operatic stories is past.

In every respect Maestro Cannone was highly enthusiastic over the work and likened it to Delibes opera "Lakme," a story of an Indian, in the matter of highly striking atmosphere, beauty of musical content, original treatment and consistently sustained composition. He commented upon the extreme difficulty of the chorus parts, and made the statement that no professional Italian operatic chorus would attempt the "Calumet" Chorus, or "The Departure." Both of these are written in seven and eight part harmony, with extremely difficult modulations. He expressed his unbounded admiration for our Chaffey College Chorus.

In the forthcoming production, May 13-14, the singing of the chorus will undoubtedly be one of the outstanding features of the production.

ESSAY CONTEST IS PROGRESSING

In order to arouse interest in scouting, Mr. Middough of Middough's Boys' Shop, is sponsoring a Boy Scout Essay Contest. The judges of the essays are Mr. Crombie Allen, editor of the Daily Report; Mr. D. D. McDonald, editor of the Ontario Herald, and Ida Vernon, editor of the Tatler. This week's prize of one dollar in merchandise goes to Scout Jack Frankish, who wrote in the given subject "Kindness of a Scout."

Every Wednesday the subject for the following week is announced in the Middough Boys' Shop Advertisement in the Daily Report. Subjects relating to Scout activities and Scout laws are chosen. "A Scout is Cheerful" will be the topic for this week's essays. It is hoped that the Scouts will become better acquainted with the real meaning of the Scout organization through this contest. The

L. VIERNE WILL GIVE CONCERT HERE MAR. 28

IS NOTRE DAME ORGANIST
Mr. Vierne Will Play At Three Places In Southern California—Chaffey Chosen As One

Louis Vierne, famous French composer and titular organist of Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris, will give one of his three concerts in Southern California, in the Chaffey Auditorium, March 24, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the San Antonio Hospital. Mr. Vierne is blind, but is able to play any great organ in the world. He was born at Portiers, France, in 1870, and received his first musical instructions in Paris. In 1900 he was appointed to the post of titular organist of Notre Dame Cathedral, a position which entitles the recipient to a life tenure.

As a composer, Vierne has achieved success in nearly all fields of composition, with particular emphasis on his organ works. These include five symphonies, works of great breadth, superb construction and brilliant color, which are in the repertoire of every organist who makes a claim to distinction.

For several years rumors have been abroad in America concerning a projected Vierne tour in America, but it has remained for the present management to translate these expectations into fact. It will be a rare privilege for organists, students and lovers of the organ, to thus have the opportunity of hearing one of the foremost modern composers play some of his own delightful compositions upon an American modern organ.

The price is: Students, seventy-five cents, and outsiders, one dollar.

The money that remains after Mr. Vierne is paid, will go toward the free bed fund of the San Antonio Hospital.

L. A. COMPANY DONATES GIFT

A valuable portfolio of one hundred forty-four plates depicting architectural details in Spain and in other Mediterranean regions was presented to the Chaffey Art department by the Monolith Portland Cement Company of Los Angeles.

Richard S. Regua, A. I. A., was sent by the Monolith Company to Spain to photograph various styles of architecture and tabulate them. The production of the plates has cost the Cement Company twenty dollars per portfolio, and as the number of those published was limited to one thousand copies, the total cost of these portfolios was twenty thousand dollars. All of the copies published have been presented to architects, technical schools, and libraries in California, to further the building of Spanish architecture in California.

The group of plates has been divided into twelve parts to facilitate study. The divisions which the author made are as follows: buildings, country type, city type; street scenes, street facades and entrances, doorways, door details, grilles, and gates, balconies, window grilles and shutters, roofs, towers and cornices, courts and patios, garden details, and a miscellaneous group.

The usefulness of this collection of plates is obvious. Primarily it was published for the use of architects, but it can be of great use to all builders and architects of the district. The author brings the work down to practicality by pointing out that through a year of study in Spain and the Mediterranean, he has been able to obtain a true idea of Spanish architecture, which, he says, is the logical type for California.

Elmer Mathews, county bee inspector, gave an interesting talk on bees and bee hives at the Junior Farm Center meeting Friday, March 11. Mr. Mathews illustrated his talk by showing the boys the latest style bee hive.

The first two numbers on the program were cornet solos played by Elbert Wing. essays already turned in show that the Scouts have given the subject some careful consideration. Jack Frankish is a member of the Ontario Troop, Five, Tiger Patrol.

NAT'L CONTEST ATTRACTS MANY

With one of the divisional try-outs for the National Oratorical Contest already held, Miss Lois Le Baron Avery is planning for another try-out next Monday between the second and miscellaneous groups of the public speaking students.

The miscellaneous group is made up of pupils who do not have regular public speaking classes and any student with fairly good speaking ability that wish to may enter the contest.

Beulah Bates and Howard Garrison winners in the first division's elimination contest, will talk it out with the winners of the other two divisions March 27. The finals will be held about April 1, with probability of having the contest at a student body assembly.

The winner of the district's finals, to be held here on April 22, will compete for the state championship May 13. The state champion will then deliver his speech in the Washington finals May 29.

To make all participants of the contest at Chaffey a little more interested, Mr. C. Allen is planning to donate a beautiful living cup to the winner for the efforts of preparing and delivering the oration.

J. F. C. FAIR TO FEATURE MANY RABBIT ENTRIES

Three hundred entries are expected in the rabbit department of the Junior Fair in May, an increase over last year of one hundred and twenty animals. Many different breeds will be on exhibition, including both fur and meat varieties. The largest displays will be of New Zealand Reds and Whites, and American Blues, others on show will be: LaLae, Black Dutch, Flemish, Belgian Hares and Chinchillas.

Franklin Hall, '26, now a member of Chaffey J. C., is head of the rabbit department, being assisted by Lincoln Crowell and Chester Jackson. Mr. Hall has recently shown his ability to supervise a rabbit department when he was in charge of the Junior Division of the Compton Rabbit Show, held March 1 to 7. Through Mr. Hall's efforts many valuable premiums are promised to the rabbit department. The special awards include loving cups, fancy stock buttons, magazine subscriptions, and cash prizes. The foremost contributors are the Associate Rabbit Breeders of Southern California, Robert G. Nash, Charles S. Gibson, Paul Walter, Lucy Donaldson, and Etta Powers.

LARGEST CLASS IN HISTORY TO GRADUATE IN JUNE

According to a statement issued this week by Dean Booth of the Junior College, this year's graduating class will be the largest in the history of the institution. From the records to date it is estimated that seventy-three members of the class of '27 will receive diplomas in June. This is almost double the number who graduated last year, the class of '26 only having forty members.

This increase is only indicative of the rapid growth of C. J. C. Organized in the fall of 1916, the school is now one of the best of its kind in the country.

This year's graduating class is comprised of students from all parts of the United States. They are registered from: Pennsylvania, Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, Minnesota and South Dakota. Others from nearby cities include some from Pomona, Hemet, Banning, Colton, Chino, Claremont, San Dimas, LaVerne, Whittier and South Pasadena.

A large per cent of those graduating have already signified their intention of going on to higher institutions of learning to work for various degrees and do graduate work.

TRIBUTE PAID TO SENATOR JOHNSON

In view of the fact that the Washington Post has led the attacks against the Boulder Dam Bill, and has consistently opposed it with cartoons and editorials, the publication of the following editorial in its issue of February 28 is considered a remarkable tribute to Senator Johnson's handling of the Boulder Dam Bill:

The Status of Boulder Dam
"The vote against cloture on the Boulder dam bill has been erroneously regarded in some quarters as a test of strength on the bill itself. The cloture vote, on the contrary, was not an indication of the number of senators who were ready to vote for the bill. Senator Johnson of California in charge of the bill, made a most skillful and gallant fight for his measure, and but for the congested condition of the Senate he might have secured its passage. Senators who favored the bill were virtually compelled to vote against cloture in order to safeguard the chances of other bills for which they were responsible, and which might have been shut out if cloture had been applied on the Boulder dam bill, possibly followed by cloture on other bills. "The Senate action can not properly be construed to be adverse to the Boulder dam bill, but as evidence of a desire to keep the remaining hours of the session open for all legislation. The Boulder dam bill itself is still before the Senate.

"The campaign waged by Senator Johnson for this bill has laid the foundation for enactment of the measure. Through his personal popularity, his tact, and his favorable action of Congress by at least two years. The Boulder dam project is of such magnitude, and the bill contains such controversial features, that Congress would not have been disposed to consider it at this short session. But Senator Johnson has placed the bill at the forefront and the project is now well understood by the country. Presumably during the summer conferences will be held which will help to remove some of the points in controversy, so that Congress can consider and pass the bill next winter. This would be remarkably prompt action, in view of all the circumstances, and would be a high compliment to Senator Johnson's personal influence and parliamentary skill."
